Important Notice. W. M. F., Fort Mac
Leod, is in town.

Mr. William Slingsby, driver for the Dominion Express Co., has this morning arrived in town and is at the Hotel

says: "Master John McLean, who is now living in Calgary, N.W.T., came back Monday last to visit his old friends and old home."

Mr. G. A. Johnson, of the Edmonton Advertiser, is here by Tuesday's train to return to Edmonton in the future and will be ready for business in McLean's office in a few days.

Mr. McNaughton, Chief Dominion Veter in the office of Mr. Slingsby, has returned home yesterday from the south.

Mr. Hague visited his son, who is a native of Southern Alberta.

The Secretary-Treasurer of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce, who has chaired the following donations: - Tucker from North West Trading Co., Grosvenor from Mr. J. Hobson, Firth cake from Mr.

W. H. H. and others, and

There was an exhibition in the window of the small store of the Alberta Woods Mills yesterday a very handsome and attractive gift for the Xmas season.

The first train from Lethbridge to Alberta and the chief were bound and destined at the Alberta Tannery, Calgary, of which Mr. J. Hobson is the prop erty. This train, which is the prop erty of a company with a large number of small and all together. The whole formed a most beau tiful piece of work and in a credit to the Alberta Woods Mills, the workmen employed on the same.

Mr. W. H. H. and others, and left this morning to visit friends in the old country, in taking the route with him.

Mr. Brown, having left it over as a gift to Mr. H. H. and others, and took with him a number of small and all together. It was a pretty piece of work.

It was a pretty piece of work.

A protracted spell culminated last night in an attempt at self destruction. Between 7 and 8 o'clock a man named Wm. Vol verdoff, an employee of the North West Trading Company, walked into the bar of the Royal Hotel and asked the bar-tender, Mr. Archie

Hutton, for a glass of ginger beer.

The liquid was handed out, the man took a few sips, then a small pistol from his pocket and put it into the part of the content into the glass. Hutton saw the action and that the bottle was labelled styr nina and he called to another party in the bar to prevent the man from drinking the glass and promptly dashed from his hand and put it into a small pocket in his coat.

The pistol had been loaded before he had swallowed a couple of mouthfuls of the stuff. Vol verdoff then ran from the hotel but fell after having gone only a short distance. He was brought back to the hotel and Dr. A. A. Porter, forwarded, administered an emetic by giving an injection of morphine.

The man was a hard patient to handle and three men were re quired to hold him down.

The greatest difficulty was experienced in getting him to open his mouth and the force with which Dr. Mac had to open it on him with a stomach pump.

The would-be suicide was handed over to the police and placed in the cells.
Volverdoff is a Russian by birth.
He will probably have a preliminary trial at the end of the month.

Mr. Frederick W. Farnes, the City Passenger Agent of the C.P.R. in London, Eng., paid the H.M.A. a call today. He is visiting all the agencies of the company in Canada and the United States. Mr. Farnes is here to inspect the work of the agents and to see that the service will benefit to a considerable ex tent by the recent legislation in the States adverse to immigration and the agents, for their own sake, will not intend settling as far west as possible.

There is a movement among all the merchants in town close their places of business at the time of the annual meeting of the agents, from January 1st to to October 1st. Most of the merchants have already signed an agreement to this effect, and doubt less all will do so.

Mr. G. A. Gordon, commanding the company with MacLean's, has a new name of the H.M.A. and is spending a few days with friends in Calgary. He has reported Gold-w and is to be here Saturday.

Mr. John Lethbridge, M.L.A., returned this morning from Regina, looking, as usual, the very best of health. The business of the session was probably over when Mr. Lethbridge left Regina, and the new session will open today.

Mr. David McLean of the H.M.A. and is a new name of the H.M.A. and is spending a few days with friends in Calgary. He has reported Gold-w

and is to be here Saturday.

THE LEGISLATURE.

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS—etc., Regina, Dec. 27.—House met today after the adjournment over Christmas, and the session was opened, as the train from the west did not arrive until five o'clock.

The election bill was considered in committee and nearly completed. Amendments to the Judicature Act was also considered, in committee, and passed.

No night session is being held, but a session will be held tomorrow morning and an effort will be made to get the estimates through to-morrow evening or late day following.

The question as to the right of the Executive Committee to advise the Lieut.-Gov. regarding Territorial appointments still hangs, awaiting word from Ottawa.

The Bills and the Committee are in full session, and the Committee has the right to advise regarding all executive matters under their own ordinances.

WHENEVER PROCEEDINGS—etc. as House opened at 10 a.m., never, member still absent.

The bill respecting agricultural taxation was read a third time.

The Bills amending the marriage and divorce laws, and providing for certain ordinances respecting the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council amending the noxious weeds were considered in committee of the whole. New provisions regarding property tax in town, was agreed upon in committee.

APPROVED.

The election bill was passed through committee for the third reading.

The financial resolution defining the grants under the school ordinances were considered in committee and agreed to. The basic grant is raised to $420 and the grant on account of pupils over Standard III is made $18.

The liquor license amendments were considered in committee.

Cinlichkeit moved an amendment providing that no store carrying liquor as a principal article of trade shall be open at the usual closing time. It was agreed to.

The amendments to the judicial acts were considered in committee.

The school ordinance was passed through committee and reported for the third reading.

Executive Committee's ordinances of last year and to constitute a new Executive Committee were passed without amendment.

CALEGARY'S AMBASSADORS FOR 1892.

"Among the most important buildings erected in Caledon in 1892 we have to note the following—

Taking five buildings, a public and industrial character there are the new Roman Catholic Hospital, situated on the mission property adjacent to the Elbow, a large stone and brick building three stories high, which is already in use; the premises of the Caleday Brewing and Malting Co., situated east of the Elbow, a three story stone building with extensive cellars; the stone four mill erected by Mr. D. McLean at the corner of Atlantic Avenue and Hamilton St.; the tannery with its group of buildings erected by Mr. J. Spence'Brien, on the east bank of the Elbow; and the factory of the Western Soap Co., which stands almost immediately opposite on the west bank of the Elbow. The investment in these buildings and their equipment cannot be less than $150,000. To these must be added Mr. H. H. New's Open House, which, with its galleries, will have a seating capacity of 600. It is being erected at the corner of McTavish St. and Angus Ave. The Ranchmen's Club House, on McTavish Ave. was finished and occupied during the year; and the year has also witnessed very extensive improvements in the important works managed by Mr. Prince.

Of business blocks we note the erection of the Clarence block, by Senator Lougheed, on Stephen Ave., with a frontage of over 100 feet; the Barber block, 50 feet front; Mr. Wenda's Macleod's block, and Mr. Braden's stone building between the Lougheed and Clarence blocks.

The latter is two stories and a basement; the rest are all three stories and of very superior architecture. The North-West Land Co. have commenced the erection of a brick veneered building, two stories and a basement.

Of residences erected during the year we note the very handsome residence for Bishop Pimlott on Elmwood Ave., erected by Mr. D. W. March; Mr. Thomas Leader has also erected a nest residence on the same eve; Mr. P. T. Bone and Mr. H. M. McCollough are also erecting residences on this eve; Mr. Eugene Watson finished two residences on McTavish St., and Mr. J. E. Jacques has erected a residence on the same street; Mr. J. F. Gannon has built himself a nest cottage on Egan Ave. Mr. Carroll's two new houses on Northgate Ave. were completed this year. Mr. T. B. Braden has built himself a nice brick residence on Hamilton St., south of the track. On Stephen Ave. east Dr. George and Mrs. William Hesher have erected residences for themselves, and east of the Elbow Col. Wainwright and Mrs. D. McLean have put up 'ip' cottages. In addition to these a very considerable number of small buildings have gone up; so that taken the year all through we have had very important additions to our public and private estates.

We should not omit to mention the opening of the line of railway from Calgary to Macleod, which has been in operation for several months.

The slaughter house and cool storage works of the North-West Trading Co. were commenced in December last and were finished in 1892, adding a very important industry to the town.

It was expected that the new Dominion Government building, for which Parliament has already voted a considerable sum, would have been commenced this year, but a delay has been caused, it is said, by a change of plans which will give Calgary a building much superior in point of architecture to what was at first contemplated. This building will be well advanced towards completion in 1893. The new C.P.R. station did not materialise in 1892 either; the most solemn promise has been made for 1893 and we have no doubt that building operations will commence in the spring.

The Government building will be of stone; the railway station will be of stone and the connecting dining hall of wood. From 70 to 80 thousand dollars in all will probably be expended on these buildings alone.

The great failures of the year include the new Oriental Bank of London, for $30,000,000; the London Home and Land Trust Building Society and other English Building Societies for 30 to 40 million; Schulitz's private bank, Berlin, for $3,500,000 worth of property, was destroyed.
